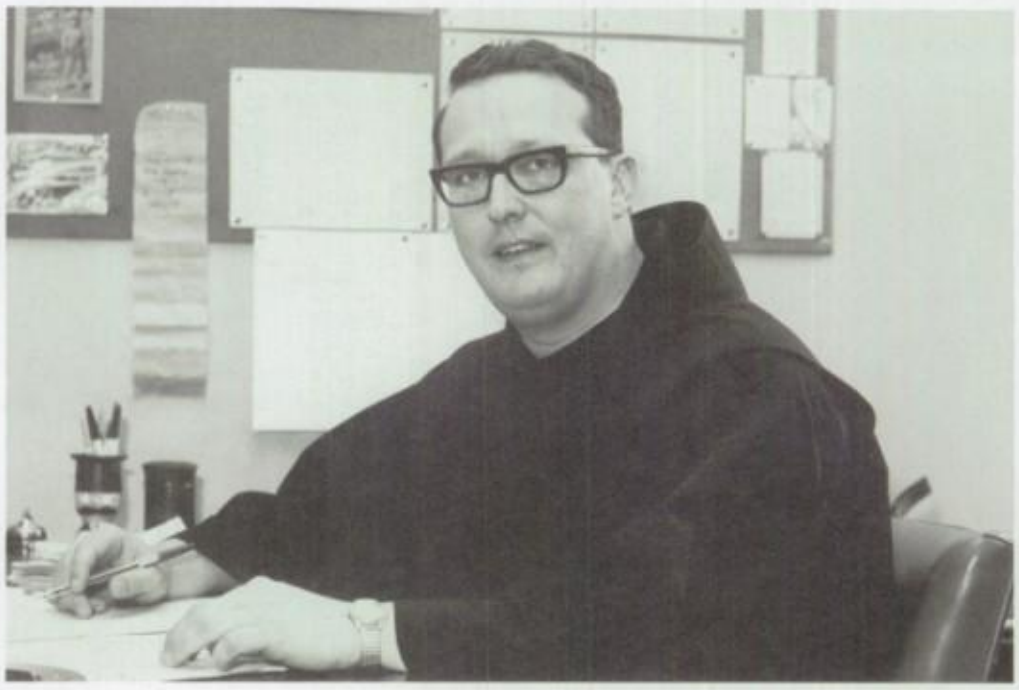
IN DEDICATION

MISS ROSALEE BROWN

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO MISS ROSALEE BROWN FOR HER MANY YEARS OF UNWAVERING SERVICE TO OUR SCHOOL. WE HOPE THAT THE FUTURE WILL BE GOOD TO HER.

MISS ROSALEE, THANK YOU!

ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY AND STAFF



The Bible, the inspired word of God, tells the story of man's salvation from Creation to Final Judgement. It tells us about God's goodness and his presence in the world through his Son and the Church. It also tells us about ourselves — both our sinfulness and our potential for good.

This yearbook, the Spartan '75 follows a Biblical theme and tells the story of a school year from Registration to Graduation. Although we have had both ups and downs during the past twelve months at Hales Franciscan, it is also a story of goodness and salvation.

Many happenings occur during a school year, and it is impossible to acknowledge all of them, even in a yearbook. Suffice it to say that we are deeply appreciative of the contributions of all students and their parents, our teachers and administrators, and so many others. A special word of thanks goes to Bro. John Bolderson (Yearbook Adviser), Stanley Anderson (Editor) and the entire Spartan '75 Staff.

1975 is a Holy Year, and the Holy Father has proclaimed a theme of Reconciliation in the Church and among men. In these troubled times, when so many nations and individuals are busily making war, we rededicate ourselves to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and pray in the words of St. Francis of Assisi: "Lord, make us instruments of your peace."

FINE ARTS

Sing joyfully to God our strength; acclaim the God of Jacob. Take up a melody, and sound the timbrel, the pleasant harp and the lyre. Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast; for it is a statute in Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob, who made it a decree for Joseph when he came forth from the land of Egypt.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Front Row: J. Battle, S. Young, J. Moffa, W. Whitehead, R. Patterson, Second Row: L. Luckett, E. Gibson, W. McGill, C. Thompson, J. Emerson, D. Frazier, Third Row: D. Whitehead, R. Avent, S. Anderson, K. Mimms, W. Swain, R. Bruton, E. Harris.

The Student Council is the collective voice of the student body. The Administration and faculty welcome a chance to listen to that voice. Far from fearing student criticism, the staff of Hales welcomes all constructive comments. The students can be a constant source of fresh ideas. This is your school and your student council.

This year the officers of the Council along with homeroom representatives represented the student body in an honorable manner. It is hoped that future student councils will continue the tradition of responsibility to the students of Hales. Whether or not they do continue this tradition is up to the students themselves. They must continue to demand active representation in the Council.

Congratulations are in order for this year's Student Council and especially for the officers of the Council. The president, Steve Young, the vice president, William Whitehead, the treasurer, Jon Battle, and the Moderator Mr. Joseph Moffa have earned the gratitude of all at Hales.

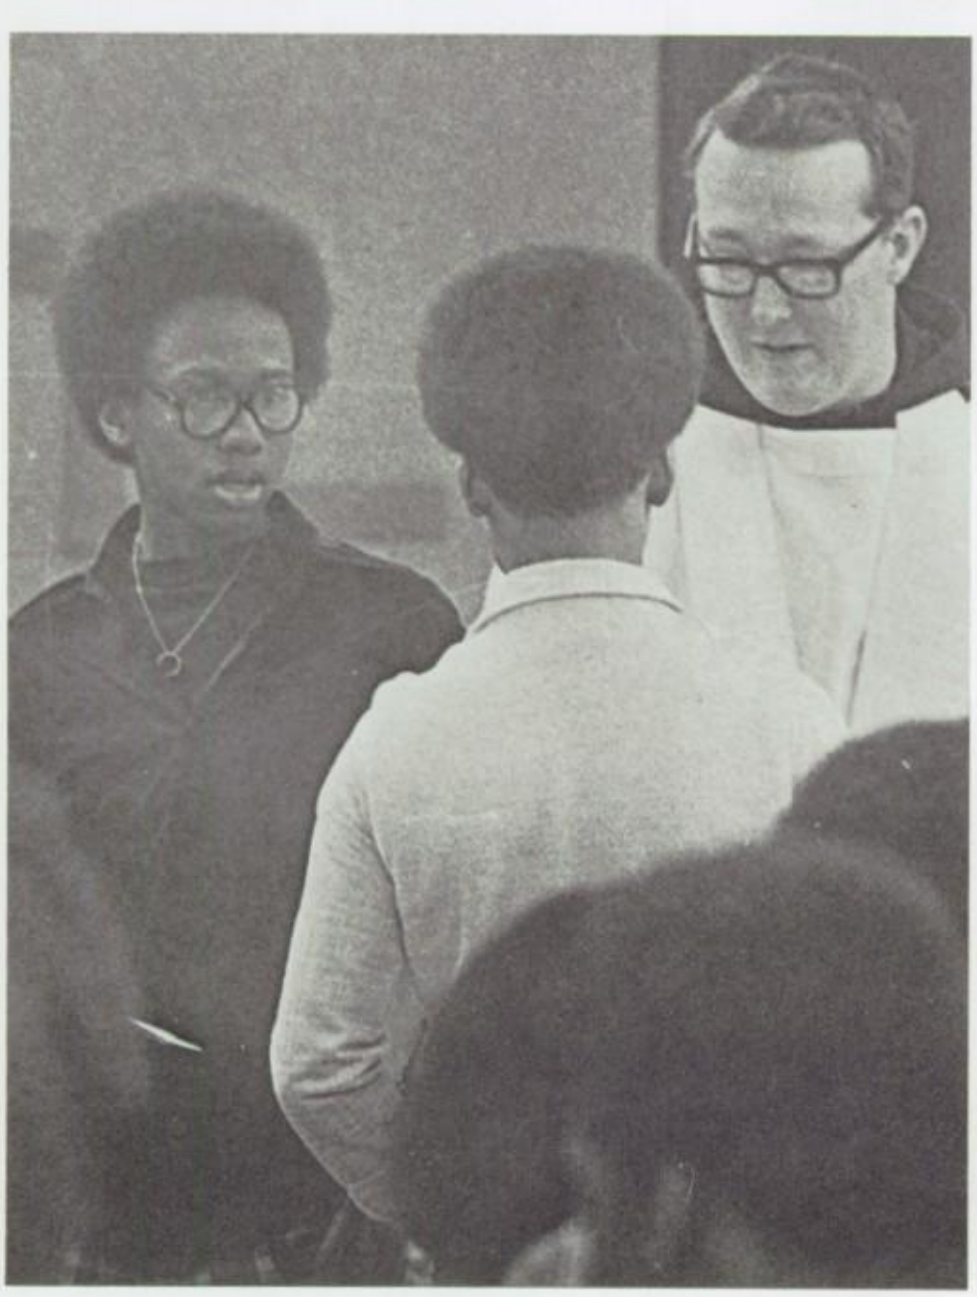
Below Right: Harlo Jackson expresses a commonly held emotion when one reaches this point in his high school career.



SCIENCE FAIR

Above: Many were lifted from earthly concern during the fair. Right: Others cast their eyes down.

Sophomore Bruce Simmons displays a shocking knowledge of electricity.

MIRRORS OF BLACKNESS

This year the spirit of the old "Spartan Players" was reborn with the rather spontaneous presentation of MIRRORS OF BLACKNESS. This successful dramatic presentation was entirely the work of interested students who wrote, produced, and directed the play. The grass-roots growth of drama at Hales is encouraging both for the leadership and imagination displayed on the part of those involved, and for the real concern for intellectual growth even outside of the classroom. Miss Wilson, moderator, and the entire cast and staff of M.O.B. deserve the highest praise for their efforts on behalf of the entire student body.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Team began inter-school competition this year with three exhibition games and a three game tournament with ten teams at Proviso East (we came in 8th). In the exhibition games we lost to St. Francis De Sales 5-0 and lost to St. Rita 3-2 and 4-2. In the tournament we lost to Evergreen Park 25-0, lost to Weber 25-0, and beat Morton East 11-10. Hales will be starting regular league play next September. Hopefully, next year will be better than this year.

Students provided their own chess equipment.

Darnell Frazier, caught in a pensive mood, plans each move well in advance.

SENIOR MONITORS

The job of a Senior Monitor is to aid in the establishment and maintenance of a high discipline code at Hales. The philosophy behind that code is described in the Annual Catalog as follows:

"One of the most important lessons education should teach is discipline. While it does not appear as a subject as such in school, it underlies the whole educational structure. It is the learning of self-discipline by means of guidelines that develops self-control, character, orderliness and efficiency. Discipline is the key to good conduct and consideration for one's fellow man. With an understanding of the purposes of discipline in a school, the student will form a correct attitude toward it — thus not only doing his part to make the school an effective place of learning, but also developing the habit of self-restraint which will make him a better person. A student's attitude is often more important than his actions. Parents are expected to cooperate fully with the discipline rules of the school, which have been designed to foster character development and a good learning environment."

TO ALL SENIOR MONITORS CONGRATULATIONS FOR A JOB WELL DONE!

DONKEY BASKETBALL

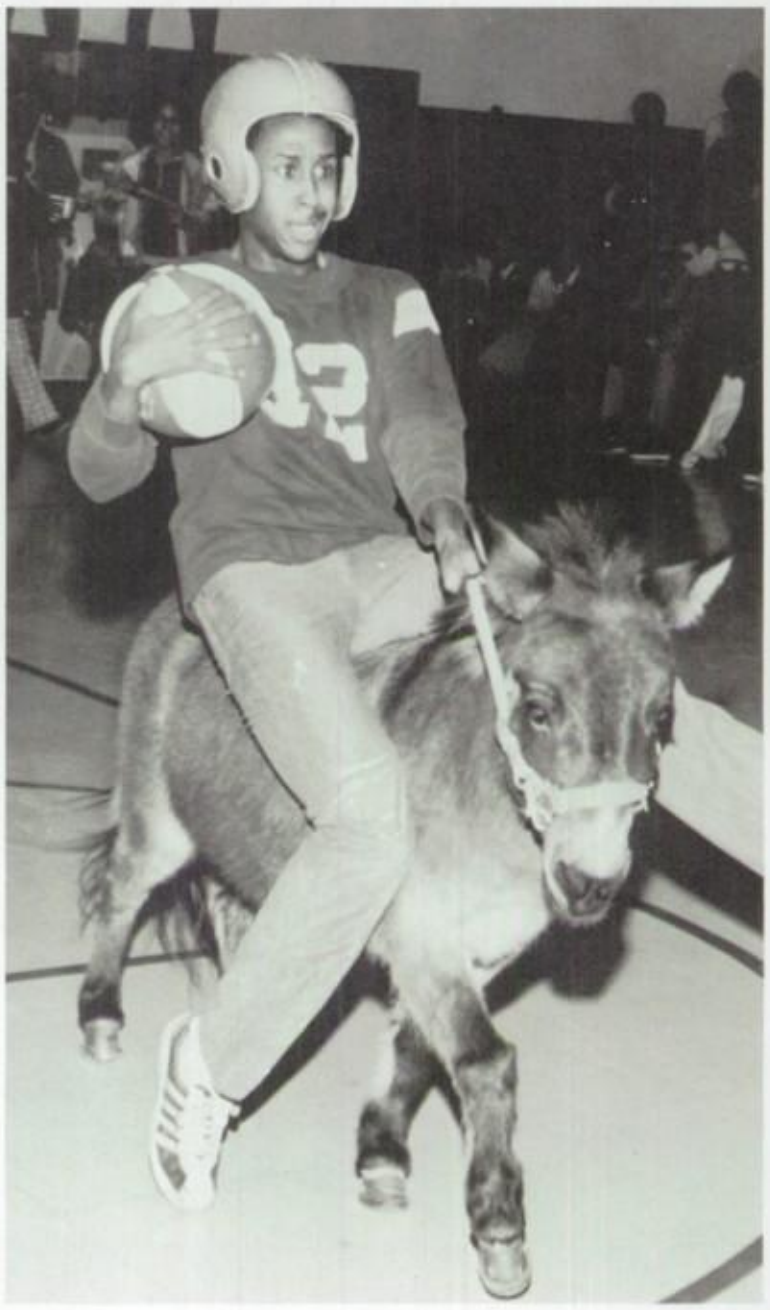
Below: James Trice experiences the thrill of athletic competition and the agony of defeat.



Left: Robert Nelson discovers the abrupt temperment of his noble domestic steed. The floor was more comfortable than the spiny backed mount to which he was subjected.

Left: David Moton holds on for dear life as his determined animal races toward the basket.

STUDENT ASSEMBLIES

Right: Ethnic dancers were used at an assembly to enhance the student's knowledge of Greek, Turkish, and Israeli cultures. The ladies received a warm welcome from Freshman World History Classes.

Below: The student body was treated to a Jazz concert to enhance its knowledge of American music.

Right: The assembly of the year was the student organized pep rally. At the right we see evidence of the spontaneous Spartan spirit which erupted during the rally.

So much could be said about this most remarkable year that it seems almost impossible to say anything of value in such a short number of pages. But we have tried to piece together a pictorial essay which will serve as a reminder of the thrills and disappointments felt by every real Spartan.

Who could ever forget the crushing defeat handed to Loyola or the physical misunderstanding at Mt. Carmel? And who will forget the sweet taste of revenge as we played Mt. Carmel that second and more crucial time.

But more than anything all Spartans will remember with pride that last game of the year. The one point loss to Bloom was painful. Still, we had a great team; not just a good team.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

OF THEM ALL WINNING FRESHMEN OUTRUN

The Freshmen Basketball Team demolished Mt. Carmel, as they one their seventh in a row with an unbelievable score of 80-26. The Spartans totaly dominated the game as Mt. Carmel never had a chance. The Spartans came oup playing as a team and ran the score up 17-6 at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter was even more so dominated by the Spartans as they held Mt. Carmel to six points and hit 23 more points for themselves to make the score 40-12 at the half. When the Spartans came back out they were ready to play. The second half was just as good or bad depending on who's side you were on. The young Spartans made the score 56-21 at the end of the 3rd period, and 80-26 at the end of an unbelievable game.The leading scorers for Hales were Levi, with 14 points, Jones and Lucas with 12 points and Woodruff with 10 points.

marc lightfoot '77

The freshies won game No. 6 as they trounced the Loyola Ramblers, 60-38, despite poor officiating.

The Spartans just ran all over Loyola in the first period as the Ramblers could do nothing to contain the fury of the Spartan blitz.

In the second quarter the Spartans played somewhat slower but Loyola still trailed us by nine at the half, 28-19.

The Spartans could have blown the game open, but Loyola came to life with a little help from the referees.

Loyola was only down by three at the beginning of the fourth quarter but the Spartans quickly bounced back to leave Loyola, as they outscored them 22-6 in the finale period!!

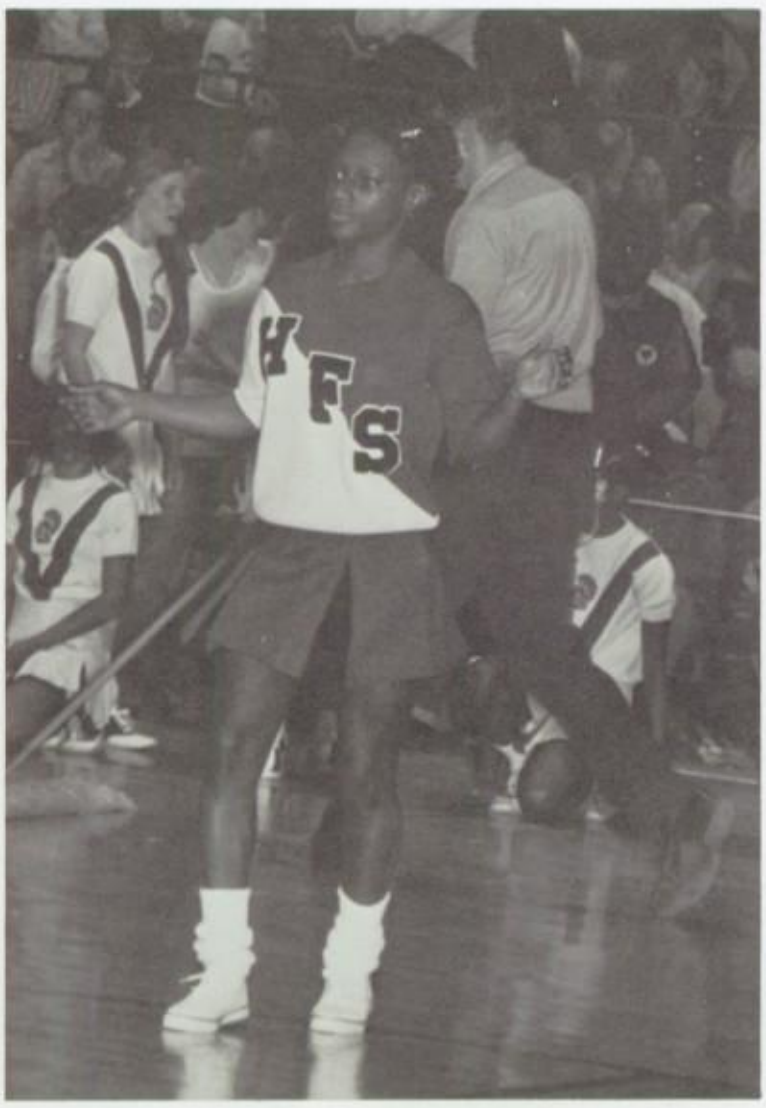
The young Spartans proved themselves able to carry on a winning tradition begun years earlier. Coach Lewis can be justly proud of his team's efforts. But the proof of greatness lies ahead. Will the freshman team of '75 live up to this greater challenge? The Spartan Yearbook Staff believes it will.

CHEERLEADERS & POM-POM GIRLS

Cheerleaders, First Row: J. Sterling, V. Lake, T. Buford, D. Smith Second Row: M. Jackson, C. Mayberry.



These are the real women of Hales. They are our sister Spartans in fact as well as spirit. Few students work as hard for our school as these dedicated ladies.

Pom-pom Squad, First Row: R. Robinson, D. Johnson, D. Williams Second Row: D. Wright, A. Wright, D. Jones.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The backbone of athletics at Hales is the well organized and efficiently run Physical Education department. The physical training program contains no "Mickey Mouse". It is tough and effective and those freshmen who participate in it develop strength and greater coordination. Students follow a circuit course moving from station to station performing the required exercise. In addition to the introductory physical education program a vigorous intramural program features softball, basketball, volleyball, and hockey.

As shown in the pictures to the right, a physical fitness competition was held based on the United States Marine Corps physical fitness test. The events pictured speak for themselves.

MARK YOUNKINS

St. Clodtide

There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to enbrace and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
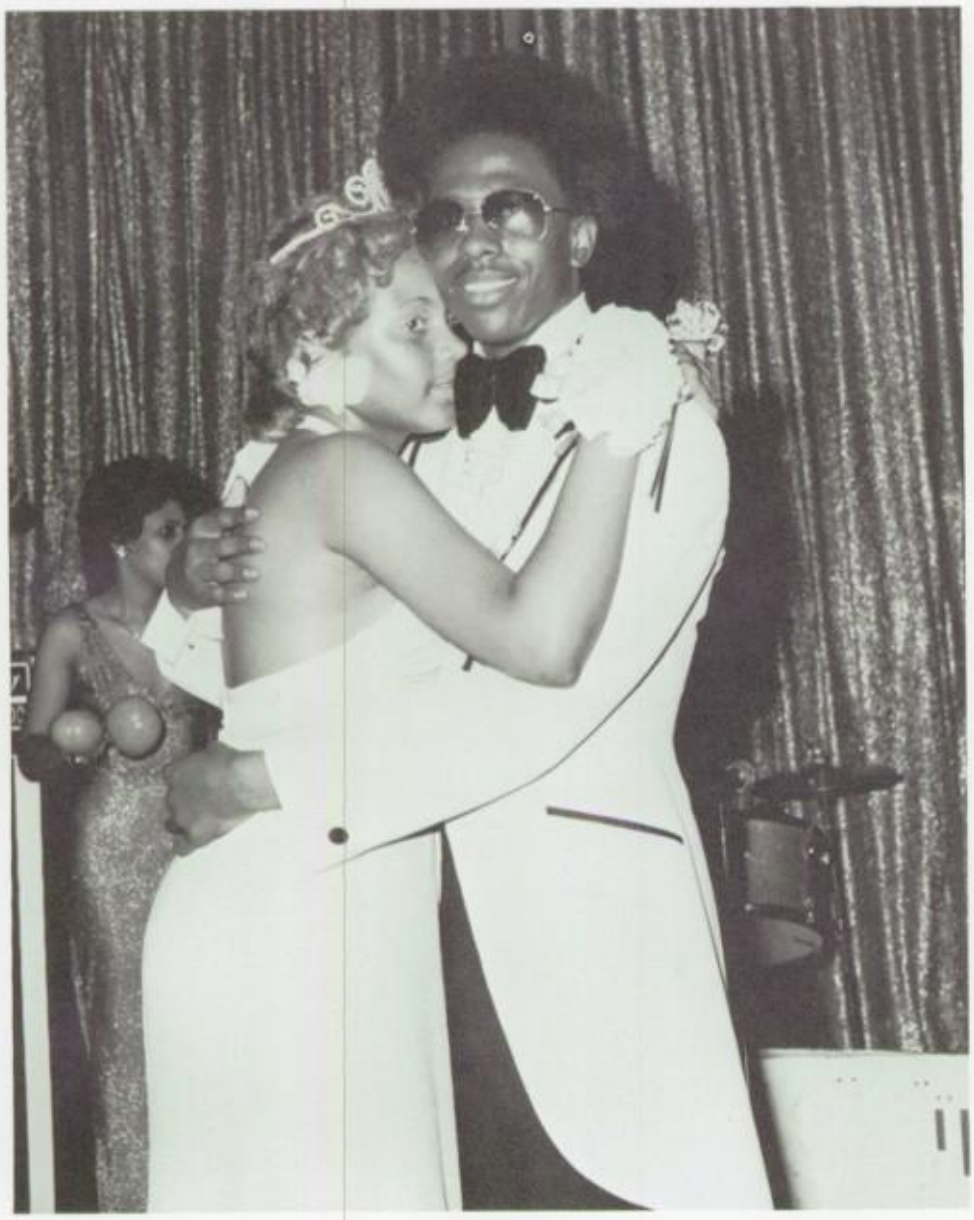
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

What advantage has the worker from his toil? I have considered the task which God has appointed for men to be busied about. He has made everything appropriate to its time, and has put the timeless into their hearts, without men's ever discovering, from beginning to end, the work which God has done.

NBC PRESENTS THE HALES SENIOR PROM



Prom King and Queen, Joseph Liddell and Ernell James, lead the dance following the crowning.

This year the Prom was held at the Blackstone Hotel (the former Sheraton Blackstone). Spartans and their dates dined and danced from 7:30 PM until midnight. An unexpected tribute was paid to Hales when an NBC television crew arrived at the Blackstone with the intention of televising a prom, live, on the channel 5 late evening news. Other proms were being held in the area but none was like the Hales prom. The decision was an easy one for NBC, even though filming the prom was technically more difficult in the room used by Hales.

Many thanks go to NBC and to Muriel Clair who so tastefully televised our 1975 Prom.

Below: Muriel Clair broadcasts, live, on channel 5. Mr. Brown advises Miss Clair giving her inside information on Hales.

"The Sauce Bernaise could use just a hint of chives," remarks Mark Harrington.

Elegant Ladies and Gentlemen partake of the pleasures of the Bump, Electric Twist, and Watergate. The Watergate was taped by NBC.

Couples danced to the music of The Central Power System.

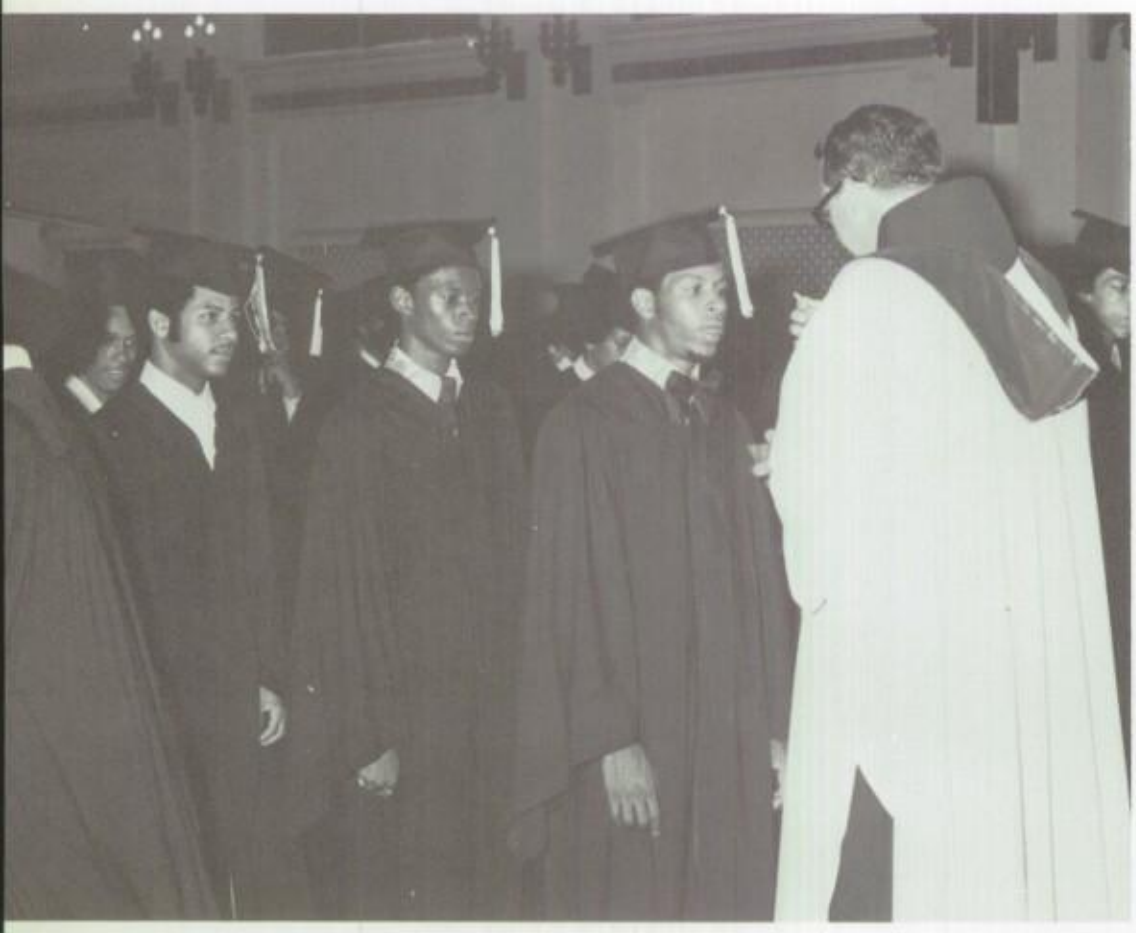
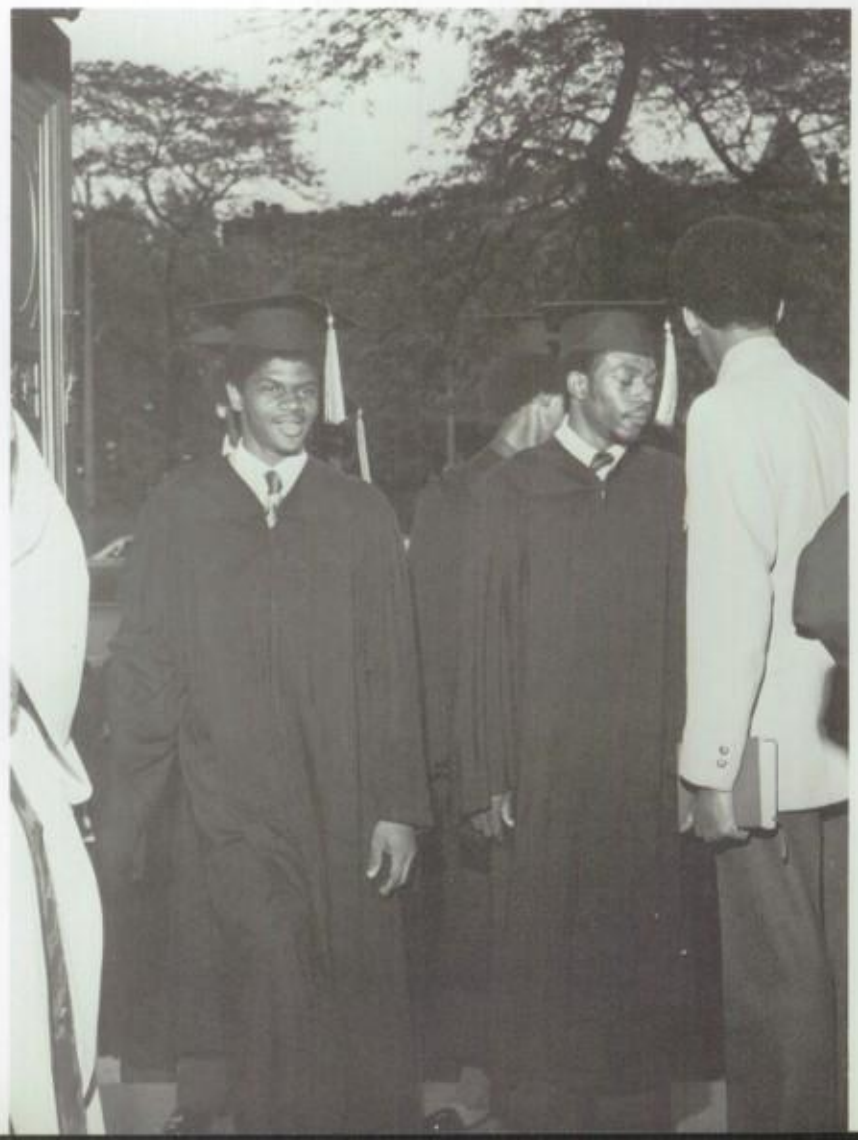
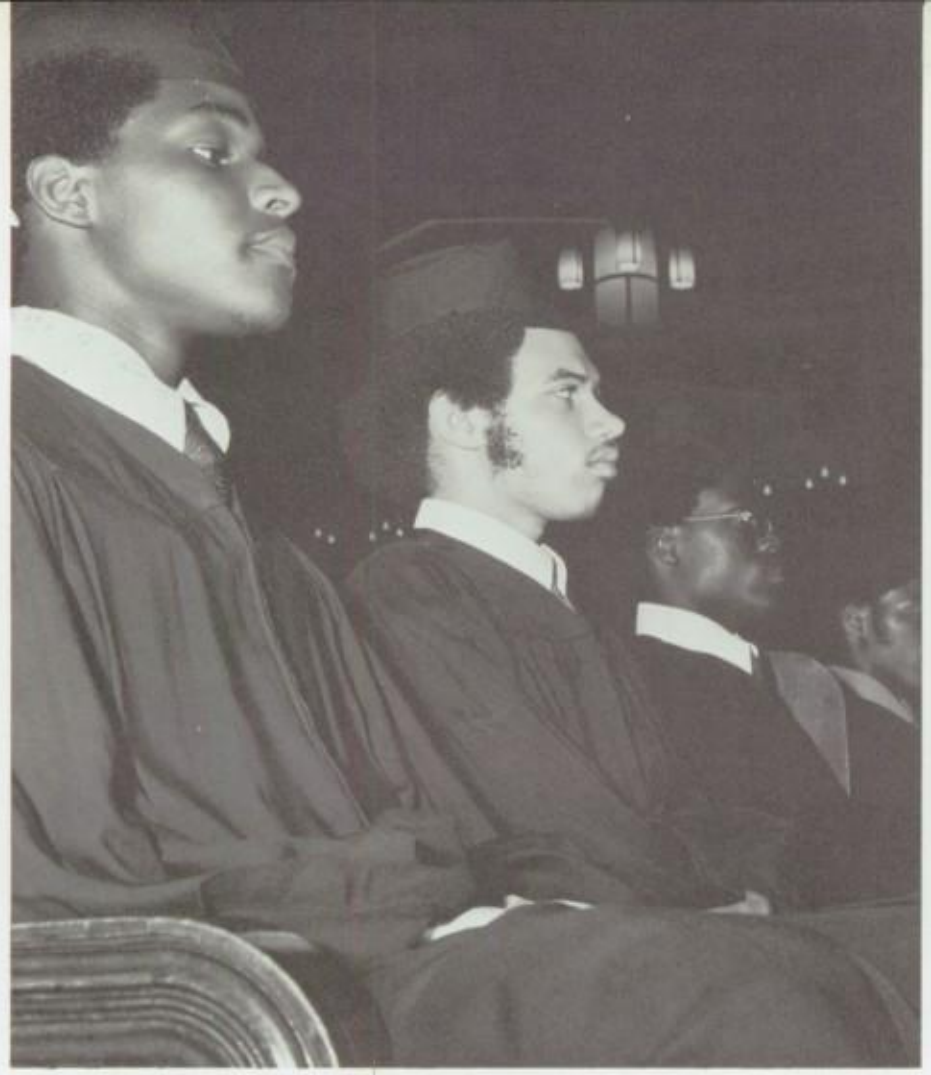
THE GRADUATION THAT BECAME A CELEBRATION '75

Graduation began with a Mass at Corpus Christi. Father Christian was the principal celebrant. Brother James and Mr. Brown read the readings.







A time for memories — a time for looking back over four years of struggle and joy.

The Corpus Christi Gospel Choir provided the music for Mass and later entertained at the graduation ceremony.

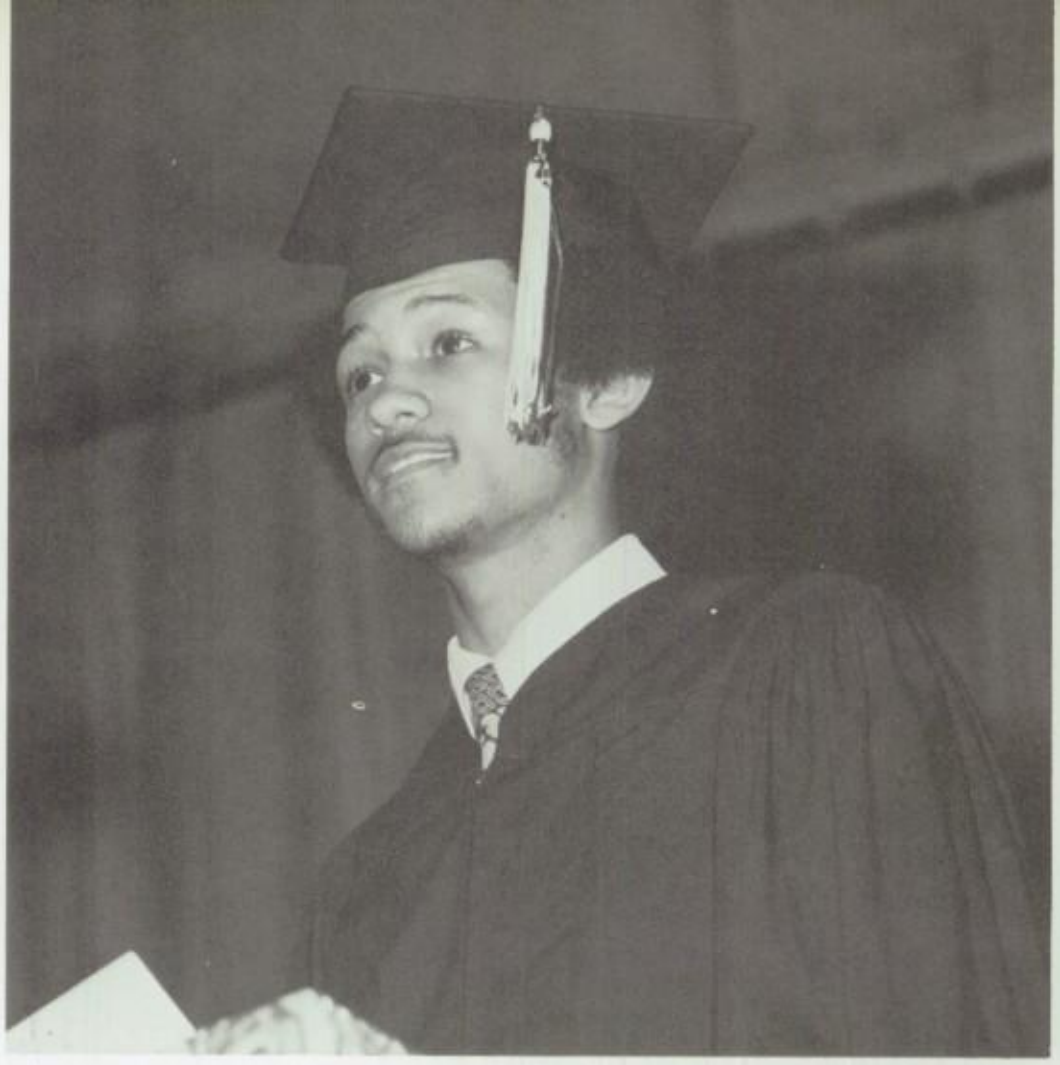
The Salutation was delivered by Stanley Demetrius Anderson.



Valedictorian Vincent Stephen Scott challenged Faculty, Administration, and Staff to live up to the school motto.

Mr. Jim Tilmon, WMAQ Weathercaster, Host of Tilmon's Tempo, and pilot for American Airlines gave the address to the graduates. "Now you are the pilots and we are the Passengers — listen to your co-pilot."

Brother Pius Xavier, F.M.S., Associate Superintendent of Schools, Archdiocese of Chicago, awarded Diplomas.
